Fred Adams: Founder of Feraferia — A Memorial Tribute (2021) This six-minute memorial video celebrates the life and vision of Fred Adams (1928–2008), visionary artist and founder of Feraferia, a Goddess-centered religious fellowship dedicated to a love culture for wilderness. Following a life-changing vision of the Goddess in 1956, Fred established the Hesperides Fellowship, a commune that eventually gave rise to Feraferia, incorporated as a nonprofit religious organization in 1967. The video also honors Fred's life partner, Svetlana Butyrin, whose creative contributions helped shape Feraferia's character and seasonal rituals, which she wrote in collaboration with Fred. Fred's prolific Goddess-inspired artwork remains a vital part of his legacy. Feraferia continues today under the leadership of Jo Carson, preserving and developing his vision of a world in harmony with nature and the Divine Feminine.
